WELCOME TO FIJI

IN THE KNOW

LOCAL CULTURE

LANGUAGE

'Bula' is the common greeting in the Fijian language and literally means life and wellness. Bula is shortened from the phrase 'Ni Sa Bula' and is the common way to say 'hello', so expect to hear and see the term often while you are in Fiji.

LOCAL TRADITION

Kava is made from the bare root of a pepper tree, pounded into a fine powder and mixed with fresh water. Traditionally, kava is used in ceremonies to welcome and thank visitors to a village and serves to reconcile quarrelling clans, and while it remains an intricate element of culture it is more a social activity nowadays. Stories and jokes are told as the Bilo (coconut cup) is passed around the Tanoa (Kava bowl) and participants enjoy the tingling sensations the drink induces on the tongue.

DID YOU KNOW?

NATADOLA BEACH

Natadola Beach is the only stretch of natural, white sand beach on the main island of Fiji. Viti Levu. Protected by a reef to create an azure-blue lagoon, Natadola Beach was voted by Forbes Magazine in 2008 as one of the 25 best beaches in the world!

NAVO ISLAND

For centuries Navo Island has been heralded as a special place for the people of Sanasana Village. Located across the channel from the resort, the Island was once used as a settlement and place of retreat during times of war and conflict, where women and children were sheltered by warriors in a secret interior cave. We offer safe, guided tours through these caves; an experience adults and children thoroughly enjoy and remember forever.
